NEW STUDENTS GET HOSTED TO A LUNCHEON

On October 3, the Dean of Students, in collaboration with the Student Council, hosted a luncheon for new students who joined the University in September 2023. This happens every Trimester, with the primary goal being to welcome the new students to the University community. Besides enjoying the meal, the students interacted with one another and established new friendships. We wish them the very best during their time at the University.

UNIVERSITY HOSTS INTERVARSITY DEBATE

On October 11, the University hosted an intervarsity debate centred around the pressing issue of the economic crisis, which has had a profound impact on millions of people. The debate attracted student participants from thirteen universities, and they provided valuable insights into the management of the economic crisis. PAC University students emerged as the first runners-up in this highly competitive debate. We congratulate them for achieving such a remarkable feat.

UNIVERSITY HOLDS A PSYCHOMETRICS TESTING CERTIFICATION TRAINING

The University held a successful two-day Psychometrics Testing Certification Training at the Thika Road Campus on October 11 and 12. The Austrian Ambassador to Kenya, Dr. Christian Fellner, was among the tens of participants who were taken through various assessment modules by a team from the SCHUHFRIED Company, which is based in Vienna, Austria. The training was a collaboration between the Psychology Department and SCHUHFRIED Company. Participants were awarded certificates at the end of the training in a ceremony that was presided over by the Vice Chancellor, Prof. Margaret J. Muthwii.

K-KREW TREAT STUDENTS TO A FUN-FILLED NIGHT OF ENTERTAINMENT

On October 13, students enjoyed an exciting and entertaining evening at the K-Rave Campus Life Event held at the Thika Road Campus, courtesy of the Kubamba Krew (K-Krew). K-Rave is held at various universities and colleges, where students are treated to a variety of fun activities such as music, dance, games, and skits. Most importantly, however, the event's primary objective is to ignite and strengthen students' devotion to Christ. It was a beautiful and unforgettable night for the students who danced the night away, matching K-Krew's high-voltage energy on stage.

UNIVERSITY HOSTS A MENTAL HEALTH FORUM

On October 14, the University hosted an important forum on mental health at the Thika Road Campus, where enlightening discussions on this intricate subject took place. Moreover, students had the opportunity to network and were introduced to the Ajira Digital Employment platform. Participants were drawn from NACADA, NHIF, the Esselle Group Foundation, and other universities and colleges such as KCA, UoN, JKUAT, MKU, St. Paul, Zetech, KU, and Utalii.

VC CONNECTS WITH INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS OVER LUNCH

The Vice Chancellor, Prof. Margaret J. Muthwii, had a fruitful lunch meeting with the international students on October 17 at the Thika Road Campus. The luncheon, which is organized by the Dean of Students every Trimester, aims to provide a platform for the VC to connect with international students and talk about their general well-being. The students enthusiastically recounted their campus experiences, both the highs and lows. The VC underscored the University's commitment to supporting them and ensuring their comfort throughout their stay. She was accompanied by the VC Designate, Prof. Dionysious Kiambi, DVC-AA, Prof. Stephen Muoki, Dean of Students, Dr. Josh Amwago, and the Head of Corporate Affairs, Mr. Anthony Taiti.

UNIVERSITY BOOK CLUB LAUNCHED

On October 18, the University Book Club was launched at the Library Commons, where members gathered with excitement and great expectations. The Patron, Ms. Josleen Rutere-Soita (Librarian), expressed her joy and optimism, assuring the members that this would be an exceptional club where fun and learning coexist. The Book Club provides an excellent opportunity for book enthusiasts to network, share ideas, and discuss member-chosen books. Meetings will be held at the Library Commons every two weeks. Well done, readers!

APPRECIATION SERVICE HELD FOR RETIRED COUNCIL MEMBERS

On October 24th, the University community gathered to honour and express gratitude to five members of the Governing Council, whose terms concluded this month. They included Prof. James Kungú, Dr. Daniel Wachira, Dr. George Kimeu, Arch. Irene Okeyo, and Mr. Samuel Makome. Led by the Vice Chancellor, Prof. Margaret J. Muthwii, the appreciation service took place at the Thika Road campus during the weekly Chapel Service. The Vice Chancellor, in her address, highlighted the great contributions they made, acknowledging their invaluable impact on the University. The five individuals later attended the official opening of the Postgraduate Research Commons and the Eden Restaurant immediately after the service.

POSTGRADUATE STUDENTS AND FACULTY SET TO ENJOY A NEW EXPERIENCE

The ongoing efforts by the University to enhance student experience and the general quality of education led to the opening and dedication of the Postgraduate Research Commons (PGRC) on Tuesday, October 24. This facility is designed to meet the evolving research needs of postgraduate students and faculty arising from the rapid expansion of data-driven research, digital scholarship, and interdisciplinary studies. The PGRC will provide a collaborative environment where students and faculty can convene to share and discuss research, as well as get support for all steps of the research process, including searching, writing, publishing, and funding.

THE EDEN RESTAURANT OPENS ITS DOORS

The University's Eden Restaurant was officially opened and dedicated to God's glory by Arch. Irene Okeyo on October 24, in a brief, colourful ceremony that was attended by staff members, student leaders, and retired Council members who had earlier attended an appreciation service held for them. This marked a new chapter for the University's hospitality business, which caters to both the local and international communities through the provision of accommodation services, conferences, and ground facilities. With a commitment to excellence, the restaurant aims to provide its patrons with a diverse selection of high-quality cuisines. Arch. Irene Okeyo is a recently retired Council member and current Chair of the PAC Institute's Board of Management.

JULIUS AND TANYA ARE CROWNED AS THE NEW MR AND MISS PAC

This year's Mr and Miss PAC pageant took place on Saturday, October 28, at the Thika Road Campus, where students put their best foot forward in the highly competitive show to be crowned the new Mr and Miss PAC. After hours of an amazing display of talents, Julius Chrystosome and Tanya Wambui emerged as overall winners, getting crowned Mr and Miss PAC for the academic year 2023-2024. The two will serve as ambassadors of the University while also working closely with the Student Council to advance the welfare of students. We extend our heartfelt congratulations to them and wish them the very best in their journey ahead.

VIONGOZI FC BASK IN THE GLORY OF BACK-TO-BACK WINS

The University's football team, Viongozi FC, posted impressive results throughout the month, winning all three of its first three matches in the ongoing Governor Sakaja Super Cup tournament. The wins came against Saints FC (2-1), Chapel Field FC (3-1), and Ghetto Sportive (3-1). The team finished at the top of the table in Zone A. The tournament has attracted over 300 teams from Nairobi, with the overall winner set to walk away with a cash prize of KES 3 million. We wish them the very best in the coming matches.

UNIVERSITY MARKETS AT THE CITAM BUSINESS CONFERENCE

The marketing team set up shop during the high-level three-day CITAM Business Conference, which took place from October 26th to 28th at CITAM Karen. Here, they interacted with the thousands of attendees, discussing academic programmes as well as other University services, including hospitality, book publishing, and professional corporate training. We wish the team the very best as they market the University out there.

WEBINAR ON HANDLING PREMARITAL SEX AMONG TEENS HELD

On October 13, the Department of Children and Youth Ministry hosted a free public webinar on dealing with the menace of premarital sex among teenagers. It was facilitated by Rev. Rose Tsalwa, Youth Pastor at CITAM Thika Town, and Mr. Lewi Obed, a faculty member of the Department. Mr. Absalom Ang'ila, the YDP Coordinator, was the moderator. The webinar attracted tens of people who often deal with teenagers, including teachers, pastors, youth workers, and parents, providing them with vital information on how to address this vice effectively.
