11. Read the following case study and answer the questions that follow.

Kesia is 24 years old and is a second year student studying Business Administration at a local University. She is struggling with identity issues and existential crisis and the reason she has come for Counselling. She first joined University 3 years ago to do Chemical Engineering after scoring an A in her KCSE. However, the course became a struggle for her. She constantly found herself falling short of the pass mark and eventually quit and changed Campuses. She's now feeling overwhelmed with anxiety and says she has never forgiven herself for quitting. According to her, she should have struggled her way through university and made it out however tough things had been. She avoids her former classmates because she's ashamed of her 'failure' she says that the only thing that matters to her is succeeding and getting rich. That everything else is not as important as this. She says that she feels like a failure because she's not performing as well as she would like to. In the most recent exam, she scored 09 out of 20 Marks. When the lecturer came to class and announced to them that the person with the highest marks had scored 15 out of 20 Marks, Kesia was troubled and has since been asking herself why she wasn't the one who scored those marks. That if someone else could do it, then so should she. She has been having trouble sleeping and she says that she constantly thinks of all the things she would like to do that she's not doing. And how the world is 'passing her by.'
